KEITH BUTLER
District 5 Manager
City of Detroit

Keith Butler is a dedicated community leader and youth advocate committed to the belief that strong homes build strong communities. As the Manager for District 5 in the City of Detroit's Mayor's Office, he oversees 58 neighborhoods—serving as a vital link between residents in the city's largest district and civic leadership. Butler champions initiatives that strengthen neighborhood associations, activate block clubs, and ensure delivery of essential city services.

He was instrumental in the landmark Future of Health: Detroit development—a $3 billion New Center project led by Henry Ford Health, the Detroit Pistons, and Michigan State University. Butler helped negotiate a community benefits agreement valued at approximately $604 million, including critical investments such as $2 million for home repair funding and $500,000 for rental assistance to support area residents.

Passionate about cultivating the next generation, Butler founded and leads The Detroit Boys Mentoring Club, providing youth in Detroit with training in financial literacy, digital skills, career readiness, and leadership—impacting hundreds of young men with practical, real-world tools.

PASTOR ROBERT E. BOLDEN
Pastor
Central Baptist Church

Pastor Robert E. Bolden, Senior Pastor of Central Baptist Church, transformed personal adversity into a lifelong mission of service. Guided by the faith instilled in him by his grandmother and church community, he has led Central since 2013 with vision, integrity, and a deep commitment to people.

Under his leadership, the church has grown from 68 members to over 4,000 across three metro Detroit locations. Pastor Bolden champions authentic, multi-generational worship, compassionate community outreach, and innovative discipleship. Central's ministries include bimonthly grocery giveaways, free tutoring, hot meals, and an open gym program. He also launched "Project Head to Toe" and "Feed and Clothe the City," providing essential resources for children and those experiencing homelessness.

Beyond ministry, Pastor Bolden values family as his greatest achievement. Married to his high school sweetheart, B'Yonca, since 2010, they are proud parents to Zoey Autumn and Robert II.

HORATIO WILLIAMS
Founder & President
On Time Transportation Inc.
Founder, Horatio Williams
Foundation

Horatio Williams knows how to turn adversity into opportunity. Raised by his mother and grandmother on Detroit's East Side, Williams found early success through basketball, earning a scholarship to Tuskegee University. There, his coach instilled a lasting philosophy: "With hard work you can achieve anything, but you must believe in your greatness." That belief carried Williams through a near-fatal accident involving a drunk driver during college.

After recovering, he entered the non-emergency transportation field, eventually launching his own company, On Time Transportation Inc., with help from a mentor. The business has grown to 17 vehicles and 40 employees, serving over 3,000 clients.

Driven by a passion for giving back, Williams founded the Horatio Williams Foundation, which empowers Detroit youth through academic support, leadership development, and athletic programs. The foundation has impacted thousands of students, fostering confidence, discipline, and opportunity in underserved communities. "Providing jobs and giving young people a path to succeed has been an honor," Williams says. "I thank God for the opportunity to serve."

JAMES H. COLE LEGACY TORCHBEARER AWARD

BISHOP EDGAR L. VANN

PASTOR. SPEAKER. VISIONARY.

From the board room to the neighborhood, Bishop Edgar L. Vann's name rises to the top when leadership is discussed in Detroit and beyond.

Serving as Senior Pastor of Second Ebenezer Church in Detroit since 1976, Bishop Vann carried forth the legacy of his father who was a noted religious leader in Detroit for over 50 years. Today, Second Ebenezer has thousands of members and guests from around the world. Bishop Vann is careful to focus his volunteer leadership on organizations that contribute to the overall health and wellness of people and their communities. Second Ebenezer Church is celebrating 86 years of service, and Bishop Vann is now in his 50th year of pastoring at Second Ebenezer Church.

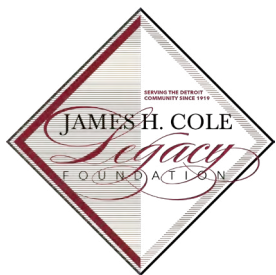

Bishop Vann founded Vanguard Community Development Corporation in 1995 to strengthen the Northeast area of Detroit. Over the years, Vanguard has invested $65 million dollars in redeveloped housing and commercial property in Northeast Detroit.

In 2007, based on a burgeoning church membership including over 50 ministries at the time, he moved his church and invested $25 million in a 15-acre worship center located in the heart of Detroit at I-75 and McNichols. In 2008, Bishop Vann was elevated to the Office of Bishop by the Joint College of African-American Bishops and is now the Presiding Prelate over Kingdom Alliance Covenant Fellowship.

The breadth and depth of his service includes the Executive Committee of Henry Ford Health System and the boards of Downtown Detroit Partnership, Downtown Detroit, Inc., and his own non-profit organization, Vanguard Community Development Corporation. Bishop Vann is also known for his partnership with Feed the Children and Forgotten Harvest that has fed over 80,000 people in Metro Detroit area.

The recipient of awards, honors and accolades too numerous to mention, Bishop Edgar Vann continues to build a legacy of hope and empowerment.

THE JAMES H. COLE LEGACY FOUNDATION

The Annual Toy Drive: A Celebration of Community and Giving

The James H. Cole Legacy Foundation's Annual Toy Drive is a signature event, aimed at spreading holiday cheer and giving back to the community that has supported our family-owned business for more than four decades.

The Annual Toy Drive was a tremendous success—and definitely something to talk about. To date, we have collected more than 5,000 toys across both of our locations, helping more than 250 families throughout the Metro Detroit area through our partnerships with COTS and Enjoy Detroit.

We want to take a moment to thank our amazing partners and our faithful neighborhood contributors who donated to this great cause. Your generosity helped bring joy and comfort to families in need, and the smiles on the children's faces were truly priceless. None of this would have been possible without you.

A special thank you to:

- Pastor Keith Pugh and Greater St. Matthew Baptist Church
- Mrs. Lisa Phillips (Principal) and the Cass Tech High School Girls Club
- Pastor Gaylon Porter and Holy Cross Baptist Church

Your continued support means the world to us. Together, we're making a difference—one toy, one child, and one family at a time.
